

Basic Detail Report

Title: Hong Kong at Night

Date: c.1931

Primary Maker: com.gallerysystems.emuseum.core.entities.RecordXPerson@3e362

Medium: Oil on canvas

Description: While known for her numerous pictures of female nudes in pastoral settings, she later focused on scenes from her extensive travels in Spain, North Africa, Japan, China, Fiji, Bali, New Guinea, and Thailand, where she was commissioned to paint a portrait of the king. This scene of Hong Kong harbor at night illustrates her competent academic style enlivened by exotic details.
