

Basic Detail Report

Title: *Beauteous

Date: 2000

Primary Maker: com.gallerysystems.emuseum.core.entities.RecordXPerson@3e40b

Medium: Oil on canvas

Description: Bold color has played a pivotal role in his work and is especially strong in his most recent paintings. Grzyb can spend years on particular favorites, painting with tiny brushes and layering coat upon coat of thick paint to create bumpy textures and subtle abstract patterns. In “Beauteous”, he uses color to explore emotions and feelings. In an allusion to his earlier theme of circles, he varies the color and amount of paint around the edges, creating a faint circle effect. Grzyb says that painting has “endless possibility, it will never be passé.” His works demonstrate the endless struggle between that which is miserable and that which is wonderful.

Basic Detail Report

Dimensions: 84 x 84 in.