

Basic Detail Report

Title: Adirondack Fishing

Date: 1950

Primary Maker: com.gallerysystems.emuseum.core.entities.RecordXPerson@3ed2f

Medium: Watercolor

Description: Amidst the harmony of blues and greens in "Adirondack Fishing" is the contrasting red of the fishermen's boat that boldly brings the sportsmen into focus. Their clothes are a carefully blended mix of natural tones that echo the colors of their surroundings, making the men a part of nature which is further emphasized by their reflection in the water. This peaceful scene in northeastern New York stands in stark contrast to the bustle of city life.

Dimensions: 17 x 27 in. (43.2 x 68.6 cm)